

Vocabulary	Pronunciation	Meaning	Collocations	Examples
uphold (v) [C1] (upholder (n), upheld (v-past))	/ʌp'hoʊld/	Duy trì / Ủng hộ (To support or defend a law, principle, or decision so that it continues to exist)	1. uphold the law – The police are sworn to uphold the law at all costs. 2. uphold a conviction – The appeals court decided to uphold the original conviction. 3. uphold a tradition – Many families strive to uphold local traditions during the holidays.	1. The judge must uphold the law. 2. The committee voted to uphold the ban, and the public reacted with mixed emotions. 3. Although the evidence was weak, the court decided to uphold the verdict because the procedural rules were followed. 4. Since the president promised to uphold the constitution, he vetoed the bill, but many legislators still argued that his decision was politically motivated.
deter (v) [C1] (deterrent (n/adj), deterrence (n), deterred	/dɪ'tɜːr/	Ngăn chặn / Răn đe (To prevent someone from	1. deter crime – Increased street lighting can help deter crime in urban areas.	1. Tougher laws may deter criminals. 2. The high fines (adj/v-past))		doing something or to make someone less enthusiastic about doing something by making it difficult)	2. deter somebody from doing something – High prices often deter people from buying luxury goods. 3. act as a deterrent – The presence of security cameras acts as a powerful deterrent against theft.	deter littering, yet some people still ignore the signs. 3. Because the security system is so advanced, it will deter most intruders from attempting a break-in. 4. Even though the fence was built to deter trespassers, several youths managed to climb over it, so the owner decided to install an alarm system.

sole (adj) [C1] (solely (adv))	/soul/	Duy nhất / Độc nhất (Being the only one; not shared with anyone else)	1. sole purpose – My sole purpose for visiting the city was to attend the conference. 2. sole survivor – He was the sole survivor of the tragic plane crash. 3. sole responsibility – Managing the project is the manager's sole	1. Money was her sole motivation. 2. He is the sole owner of the shop, so he makes all the financial decisions. 3. If you are the sole provider for your family, you must manage your budget very carefully. 4. While she was the sole candidate responsibility.	for the position, the board still interviewed her extensively, and they eventually offered her a very competitive salary.

incarceration (n) [C2] (incarcerate (v), incarcerated (adj))	/ɪnˌkɑːrsəˈreɪʃn/	Sự bỏ tù / Sự giam cầm (The act of putting or keeping someone in prison or in another place from which they cannot escape)	1. mass incarceration – Experts are debating the long-term social effects of mass incarceration. 2. alternative to incarceration – Community service is often seen as a better alternative to incarceration for minor crimes. 3. period of incarceration – During his period of incarceration, he studied for a university degree.	1. Incarceration is a common punishment. 2. The crime rate dropped significantly, but the rate of incarceration continued to rise. 3. Because the defendant was a repeat offender, the judge felt that incarceration was the only appropriate sentence. 4. Although some argue that incarceration prevents further crimes, others believe it fails to reform individuals, so they advocate for rehabilitation programs instead.

pragmatic (adj) [C1] (pragmatically (adv), pragmatism (n))	/præg' mætɪk/	Thực tế / Thực dụng (Solving problems in a sensible way that suits the conditions that really exist, rather than obeying fixed theories)	1. pragmatic approach – We need to take a pragmatic approach to solve the budget crisis. 2. pragmatic solution – Finding a pragmatic solution is more important than winning the argument. 3. pragmatic politician – The pragmatic politician was willing to compromise to pass the new law.	1. She took a pragmatic view. 2. The plan is not perfect, but it is a pragmatic way to move forward. 3. Since we have a limited budget, we must be pragmatic about which projects we choose to fund. 4. If the leaders remain pragmatic during the negotiations, a deal can be reached, although both sides will have to give up some of their initial demands.
lasting (adj) [B2] (last (v), lastingly (adv))	/'læstɪŋ/	Bền vững / Lâu dài (Continuing to exist for a long time or forever)	1. lasting impression – Her speech made a lasting impression on the young students. 2. lasting peace – The two nations are working hard to achieve a lasting peace.	1. They formed a lasting friendship. 2. The book was written decades ago, yet it still has a lasting impact on readers today. 3. Unless we reduce carbon emissions immediately, the planet will suffer

			3. lasting damage – The storm caused lasting damage to the historical coastal town.	lasting environmental consequences. 4. Because the mentor provided such valuable guidance, the student achieved lasting success, and she eventually went on to start her own successful company.
--	--	--	---	---