

Vocabulary	Pronunciation	Meaning	Collocations	Examples
along with (prep phrase) [B1]	/ə'lə:ŋ wɪð/	Cùng với (In addition to someone or something; together with)	1. along with others – She attended the meeting along with others from her department. 2. travel along with – I decided to travel along with my brother to the coast. 3. along with that – He lost his job and, along with that, his company car.	1. He brought his dog along with him. 2. I will send the report today, and I'll include the data along with it. 3. Because the weather was nice, we walked to the park along with our friends. 4. Since the company is expanding, they are hiring new staff along with opening a branch, and everyone is very excited.
somehow (adv) [B1]	/ˈsʌm.haʊ/	Bằng cách nào đó (In a way or by some means that is not known or specified)	1. somehow manage – We must somehow manage to finish this project by Friday. 2. somehow or other – I will get the money somehow or other.	1. We will finish the task somehow. 2. The door was locked, but he somehow got inside the house. 3. Although she was tired, she somehow found the energy to detrimental (adj) [C1] (detriment (n), detrimentally (adv))	/ˌdet.rəˈmen.təl/	Có hại, bất lợi (Causing harm or damage; tending to cause harm)	1. detrimental effect – Smoking has a detrimental effect on your long-term health. 2. highly detrimental – These new regulations are highly detrimental to small businesses. 3. detrimental to – Lack of sleep is detrimental to your cognitive performance.	1. Pollution is detrimental to the environment. 2. The policy was poorly designed, and it proved detrimental to the local economy. 3. While the medicine helps the heart, it may be detrimental to the liver in high doses. 4. If we continue to ignore climate change, the results will be detrimental to future generations, so we must act now.

			3. feel somehow – I felt somehow responsible for the accident.	continue working. 4. Even though the map was confusing, we somehow found the trail, and we arrived at the cabin before sunset.
habitat (n) [B2] (habitation (n),	/ˈhæb.ə.tæt/	Môi trường sống (The natural	1. natural habitat – The giant panda is being	1. The forest is a natural habitat.

habitual (adj))		home or environment of an animal, plant, or other organism)	returned to its natural habitat. 2. habitat destruction – Habitat destruction is the primary cause of species extinction. 3. wildlife habitat – We must protect the local wildlife habitat from urban sprawl.	2. The polar bear's habitat is melting, and the species is now in grave danger. 3. Because the wetland is a unique habitat, many rare birds migrate there annually. 4. Since the rainforest is a vital habitat, conservationists are working to save it, but progress remains slow.
phenomenon (n) [C1] (phenomena (plural n), phenomenal (adj))	/fəˈnɑː.mə.nɑːn/	Hiện tượng (Something that exists and can be seen, felt, tasted, etc., especially something unusual)	1. natural phenomenon – A rainbow is a beautiful natural phenomenon. 2. global phenomenon – Social media has become a massive global phenomenon. 3. explain a phenomenon – Scientists are still trying to explain this strange	1. Gravity is a physical phenomenon. 2. The singer became a superstar, and her fame turned into a global phenomenon. 3. When the northern lights appear, it is a phenomenon that attracts many tourists.

			phenomenon.	4. Although the storm was a rare phenomenon, it caused extensive damage, and the city is still recovering.
abuse (v, n) [B2] (abuser (n), abusive (adj), abusively (adv))	/ə'bjʊ:z/	Lạm dụng (To use something for the wrong purpose in a way that is harmful or morally wrong)	1. drug abuse – The government is launching a new campaign against drug abuse. 2. abuse of power – The dictator was criticized for his blatant abuse of power. 3. alcohol abuse – He suffered from years of health problems due to alcohol abuse.	1. You should not abuse your privileges. 2. He was a popular leader, yet he began to abuse his authority over time. 3. If a person chooses to abuse their body, they will likely face health issues later. 4. Because the manager started to abuse his staff, the turnover rate increased, and the owner eventually fired him.
exploitation (n) [C1] (exploit (v), exploitative (adj))	/ˌek.splɔɪ'teɪ.jən/	Sự khai thác/bóc lột (The act of using someone or something unfairly for your own advantage)	1. resource exploitation – The rapid exploitation of natural resources is a major concern.	1. We must stop the exploitation of workers. 2. The land was rich in oil, so the exploitation of the area began

			2. labor exploitation – Many international laws aim to prevent child labor exploitation. 3. commercial exploitation – The film was a huge success and ripe for commercial exploitation.	immediately. 3. While economic growth is necessary, the exploitation of the environment must be regulated. 4. Since the company focused on profit through exploitation, the workers went on strike, and production stopped.
exhaustion (n) [C1] (exhaust (v/n), exhaustive (adj), exhausted (adj))	/ɪg'zɔːstʃən/	Sự cạn kiệt/kiệt sức (The state of being extremely tired or the act of using something up completely)	1. physical exhaustion – She collapsed from total physical exhaustion after the marathon. 2. heat exhaustion – Many hikers suffer from heat exhaustion during the summer months. 3. exhaustion of resources – The exhaustion of natural resources will lead to a global crisis.	1. He suffered from extreme exhaustion. 2. The project was finally finished, but the team felt a sense of utter exhaustion. 3. Because she worked three jobs, her exhaustion became a serious health problem. 4. Even though they were near exhaustion, the climbers reached the summit, and they celebrated their victory.

simultaneously (adv) [C1] (simultaneous (adj), simultaneity (n))	/ˌsaɪ.məl'teɪ.ni.ə s.li/	Đồng thời (Happening or being done at exactly the same time)	1. broadcast simultaneously – The event was broadcast simultaneously in over fifty countries. 2. occur simultaneously – The two explosions occurred almost simultaneously. 3. work simultaneously – The software allows multiple users to work simultaneously.	1. The dancers moved simultaneously. 2. I tried to cook dinner, and I simultaneously talked on the phone. 3. Because the two events happened simultaneously, I could only attend one of them. 4. While the orchestra played, the choir sang simultaneously, and the audience was completely mesmerized.
delve into (phrasal v) [C1]	/delv 'ɪn.tuː/	Nghiên cứu kỹ/đi sâu vào (To examine something carefully in order to discover more information about it)	1. delve into the past – The book delves into the dark past of the city. 2. delve into details – We don't have time to delve into the details right now. 3. delve into a	1. I need to delve into the files. 2. The reporter started to delve into the scandal, and she found shocking evidence. 3. Before we make a decision, we must delve into mystery – The detective decided to delve into the mystery of the missing heir.	the potential consequences of this plan. 4. Since the professor wanted to delve into the topic, he assigned extra reading, and the students felt overwhelmed.

demonstrate (v) [B2] (demonstration (n), demonstrative (adj), demonstrably (adv))	/ˈdem.ən.streɪt/	Chứng minh/biểu diễn (To show or make something clear; to prove something by giving examples or evidence)	1. demonstrate a skill – Candidates must demonstrate their communication skills during the interview. 2. clearly demonstrate – These results clearly demonstrate the need for further research. 3. demonstrate against – Thousands of people gathered to demonstrate against the new law.	1. Please demonstrate how it works. 2. The experiment was a success, and it helped demonstrate the new theory. 3. If you want to get the job, you must demonstrate that you are reliable. 4. Although the teacher tried to demonstrate the formula, the students were confused, so he explained it again.