

Vocabulary	Pronunciation	Meaning	Collocations	Examples
tendency (n) [B2] (tend (v))	/ˈten.dən.si/	Khuyh hướng, xu hướng (A likelihood to happen or to have a particular characteristic or type of behavior)	1. have a tendency – Some people have a tendency to exaggerate their accomplishment s. 2. growing tendency – There is a growing tendency for companies to allow remote work. 3. natural tendency – It is a natural tendency for parents to protect their children.	1. He has a tendency to arrive late. 2. The market shows a downward trend, and many investors have a tendency to panic. 3. Although she is very smart, she has a tendency to overthink simple problems. 4. Because the climate is changing, there is a tendency for storms to become more severe, and coastal cities must prepare for this reality.
exhaust fumes (n phrase) [B2]	/ɪgˈzɔːst fjuːmz/	Khí thải (từ động cơ) (The waste gases that come out of a vehicle's engine while it is running)	1. emit exhaust fumes – Old trucks emit thick, black exhaust fumes into the air. 2. inhale exhaust fumes –	1. The city air is thick with exhaust fumes. 2. The car engine was running, and exhaust fumes filled the small garage.

			Standing in traffic means you inhale dangerous exhaust fumes. 3. toxic exhaust fumes – The government is trying to reduce toxic exhaust fumes in city centers.	3. Since the bus was old, it produced a lot of exhaust fumes that smelled terrible. 4. While electric cars do not produce exhaust fumes, they are still expensive for many people, so gas-powered vehicles remain common.
breed (v, n) [C1] (breeding (n/adj), bred (past/pp))	/bri:d/	Gây ra, phát sinh (nghĩa bóng); chăn nuôi (nghĩa đen) (To cause something to happen, usually something bad; to keep animals for the purpose of producing young)	1. breed success – Confidence often breeds success in competitive environments. 2. breed conflict – Poverty and injustice can quickly breed social conflict. 3. breed animals – The farmer decided to breed sheep for their high-quality wool.	1. Familiarity can sometimes breed contempt. 2. Dirt breeds disease, so you must keep your kitchen clean. 3. When people feel ignored by their leaders, it often breeds a sense of resentment. 4. If the management ignores complaints, it will breed a toxic work culture, and the best employees will eventually leave.

greenhouse gases (n phrase) [B2]	/ˈɡriːn.haʊs ˌɡæs.ɪz/	Khí nhà kính (Gases, such as carbon dioxide, that trap heat in the atmosphere and cause global warming)	1. reduce greenhouse gases – Countries must work together to reduce greenhouse gases. 2. emission of greenhouse gases – The emission of greenhouse gases has increased significantly since the Industrial Revolution. 3. trap greenhouse gases – Forests help absorb carbon, which traps greenhouse gases.	1. Methane is one of the most potent greenhouse gases. 2. Factories produce massive amounts of energy, but they also release greenhouse gases. 3. Scientists believe that greenhouse gases are the primary cause of the rising global temperature. 4. Although some industries are cutting back, the total level of greenhouse gases is still rising, and this remains a global crisis.
comes along (phrasal v) [B1]	/kʌmz əˈlɔːŋ/	Đi cùng, xuất hiện, đi kèm (To arrive or appear at a place; to	1. come along with – I decided to come along with my friends to the concert.	1. A better job finally came along. 2. The movie was starting soon, so I asked her to come accompany someone or happen as a result)	2. opportunity comes along – You should be ready when a great opportunity comes along. 3. how is it coming along – The boss asked how the new project was coming along.	along with us. 3. If a new technology comes along, it can change the entire industry overnight. 4. When a new challenge comes along, you must stay calm, and you will eventually find a way to solve it.

contaminate (v) [C1] (contamination (n), contaminant (n), contaminated (adj))	/kən'tæm.ə.neɪt/	Làm ô nhiễm, làm bẩn (To make something less pure or make it poisonous by adding something harmful)	1. contaminate the water – Industrial waste can easily contaminate the local water supply. 2. heavily contaminated – The soil near the old factory was found to be heavily contaminated. 3. risk contaminating – We must be careful not to risk contaminating the sterile environment.	1. Bacteria can contaminate your food. 2. The oil spill was massive, and it began to contaminate the entire coastline. 3. If we do not fix the pipes, sewage might contaminate the drinking water. 4. Because the chemicals were handled poorly, they started to contaminate the river, and the local wildlife suffered greatly.

exemplified (v) [C1] (exemplify (v), exemplary (adj), exemplification (n))	/ɪgˈzɛm.pləˈfaɪd/	Minh họa, làm ví dụ điển hình (To be or give a typical example of something)	1. perfectly exemplified – His bravery was perfectly exemplified by his actions during the fire. 2. be exemplified by – The city's growth is exemplified by the new skyscrapers. 3. exemplify a trend – This fashion style exemplifies the current trend toward minimalism.	1. His style is exemplified by his paintings. 2. She is a great leader, and her success is exemplified by the loyalty of her team. 3. The economic crisis is exemplified by the high number of local businesses closing down. 4. While the theory is complex, it is exemplified by this simple experiment, and students find it much easier to understand.
poisoned (adj, v) [B2] (poison (n/v), poisonous (adj))	/ˈpɔɪ.zənd/	Bị nhiễm độc, bị đầu độc (Harmful or killed by poison; treated with a substance that can cause death or illness)	1. poisoned water – The village was warned not to drink from the poisoned water source. 2. poisoned atmosphere – The argument created a poisoned	1. The fish died in the poisoned lake. 2. Someone poisoned the well, and the entire community became very ill. 3. If the waste is not treated, the poisoned land will be useless for atmosphere in the office. 3. be accidentally poisoned – The dog was accidentally poisoned after eating a toxic plant.	farming. 4. Since the company dumped chemicals, the ground became poisoned, and they were forced to pay a massive fine.

tonne (n) [B1] (ton (US spelling))	/tʌn/	Tấn (đơn vị đo lường) (A unit of weight equal to 1,000 kilograms)	1. metric tonnes – The ship was carrying over 50,000 metric tonnes of coal. 2. tonnes of waste – Every year, cities produce millions of tonnes of waste. 3. weigh several tonnes – Some species of whales can weigh over one hundred tonnes.	1. The truck carries several tonnes of grain. 2. We ordered ten tonnes of sand, and it arrived at the construction site this morning. 3. Because the machine weighs many tonnes, we need a special crane to move it. 4. Since the factory produces tonnes of steel every day, the local economy is strong, but the air quality has declined.
brink of extinction	/brɪŋk əv ɪk'stɪŋk.ʃən/	Bờ vực tuyệt chủng	1. on the brink of extinction – Many species of	1. That bird is on the brink of extinction.

(phrase) [C1]		(A situation in which a type of animal or plant is very close to disappearing forever)	tigers are currently on the brink of extinction. 2. push to the brink of extinction – Hunting and habitat loss have pushed the rhino to the brink of extinction. 3. save from the brink of extinction – Conservation efforts helped save the bald eagle from the brink of extinction.	2. Pollution levels are rising, and many marine creatures are now on the brink of extinction. 3. If we do not stop illegal poaching, the mountain gorilla will remain on the brink of extinction. 4. Because their habitat was destroyed, these pandas were on the brink of extinction, but the new sanctuary has helped their population recover.
---------------	--	---	--	---