

Vocabulary	Pronunciation	Meaning	Collocations	Examples
dissemination (n) [C2] (disseminate (v))	/dɪˌsemɪˈneɪʃn/	Sự phổ biến, sự lan truyền (The act of spreading something, especially information, widely)	1. dissemination of information – The rapid dissemination of information is a key feature of the digital age. 2. wide dissemination – The research findings deserve wide dissemination among the scientific community. 3. dissemination of knowledge – Libraries play a crucial role in the dissemination of knowledge to the public.	1. The Internet allows for the instant dissemination of news. 2. The study was completed last year, but its dissemination was delayed by legal issues. 3. Although the government tried to stop the dissemination of the report, it was eventually leaked to the press. 4. After the new policy was finalized, the manager handled the dissemination of the guidelines, and she ensured that every employee understood their new responsibilities.
advocate (v, n) [C1] (advocacy)	/ˈædvəkeɪt/	Ủng hộ, biện hộ; người ủng hộ	1. advocate for change – Many	1. Some experts advocate for a (n), advocated (adj/past))		(To publicly support or suggest an idea, development, or way of doing something)	activists advocate for change in the current environmental laws. 2. a staunch advocate – He has always been a staunch advocate of free speech. 3. advocate a policy – The economist continues to advocate a policy of lower interest rates.	shorter workweek. 2. She is a famous lawyer, and she often advocates for the rights of minorities. 3. Because the city is facing a housing crisis, many residents advocate that the government should cap rent prices. 4. Since the principal advocates for student mental health, he implemented a new wellness program, but some parents still feel that more academic rigor is needed.

accountability (n) [C1] (accountable (adj))	/əˌkaʊntəˈbɪləti/	Trách nhiệm giải trình (The fact of being responsible for what you do and able to give a satisfactory reason for it)	1. hold someone to accountability – The public must hold elected officials to strict accountability. 2. legal accountability –	1. Accountability is essential in any democracy. 2. The new law increases corporate accountability, and it imposes heavy fines for

			The company faced legal accountability for the environmental damage it caused. 3. lack of accountability – Many critics pointed to a lack of accountability within the organization's leadership.	non-compliance. 3. Unless there is a clear system of accountability, the project is likely to fail due to mismanagement. 4. While the CEO promised more transparency and accountability, the shareholders remained skeptical, so they demanded an independent audit of the company's finances.
curb (v) [C1] (curbed (adj/past))	/k3:rb/	Kiểm chế, hạn chế (To control or limit something that is not wanted)	1. curb spending – The government is trying to curb public spending to reduce the national debt. 2. curb emissions – New regulations were introduced to curb carbon emissions from factories. 3. curb an appetite – Drinking water	1. We must curb the spread of rumors. 2. The police increased patrols to curb crime, yet the residents still felt unsafe at night. 3. If the central bank raises interest rates, it will likely curb inflation over the next few months. 4. Because the

			before a meal can help curb your appetite.	city wants to curb traffic congestion, officials have proposed a new toll, but many commuters are worried about the additional daily cost.
compelled (adj) [C1] (compel (v), compelling (adj))	/kəmˈpeld/	Bị cưỡng ép, bị bắt buộc (Having to do something because you are forced to or feel you must)	1. feel compelled to – I felt compelled to speak up when I saw the injustice occurring. 2. legally compelled – Witness are legally compelled to testify in court under certain circumstances. 3. compelled by necessity – Compelled by necessity, the family decided to move to a smaller apartment.	1. He felt compelled to resign. 2. The witness was compelled to testify, so she arrived at the courthouse early Monday morning. 3. Although she was not required to help, she felt compelled to stay late because her colleagues were overwhelmed. 4. Since the company was compelled by law to disclose its earnings, the report was released yesterday, and it revealed a significant loss for the third quarter.

incite (v) [C2] (incitement (n), incited (adj/past))	/In'saɪt/	Kích động, xúi giục (To encourage someone to do or feel something unpleasant or violent)	1. incite violence – The speaker was accused of using his platform to incite violence. 2. incite hatred – Laws exist to punish those who incite hatred against specific groups. 3. incite a riot – The angry crowd was incited to a riot by the inflammatory social media posts.	1. His words did not incite a protest. 2. The leader's speech incited fear, and many people began to flee the city. 3. Because the post was designed to incite anger, the platform decided to remove it immediately. 4. Although the protesters claimed they were peaceful, the authorities argued the organizers incited a riot, so several arrests were made following the event.
erode (v) [C1] (erosion (n), eroding (adj))	/I'rouð/	Ăn mòn, làm giảm sút (To slowly reduce or destroy something, such as confidence, trust, or a physical surface)	1. erode trust – Constant lies will eventually erode the trust in a relationship. 2. erode confidence – The recent scandal has served to erode	1. Heavy rain can erode the soil. 2. Inflation continues to erode savings, so people are looking for better investment options. 3. As more investor confidence in the market. 3. erode profits – Rising production costs are beginning to erode the company's profit margins.	scandals come to light, they slowly erode the public's faith in the political system. 4. While the management tried to improve morale, the constant layoffs continued to erode employee loyalty, and many talented staff members eventually left the firm.

sway (v) [C1] (swayed (adj/past))	/sweɪ/	Làm lay chuyển, thuyết phục (To persuade someone to believe something or do something)	1. sway public opinion – The documentary was powerful enough to sway public opinion on the issue. 2. easily swayed – Young voters can be easily swayed by charismatic political figures. 3. sway a decision – New evidence presented at the last minute might sway the jury's decision.	1. Do not let them sway you. 2. The advertisement swayed his choice, and he bought the more expensive phone. 3. Because she is an expert in the field, her testimony will likely sway the committee's final vote. 4. Although the candidate tried to sway the crowd with promises, most people remained skeptical, so his poll numbers did not improve after the rally.

oversight (n) [C1] (oversee (v))	/ˈoʊvərsɑɪt/	Sự giám sát; sự sơ suất (The responsibility of managing or checking that something is being done correctly)	1. regulatory oversight – The banking industry requires strict regulatory oversight to prevent another crisis. 2. congressional oversight – The committee provides congressional oversight of the intelligence agencies. 3. lack of oversight – The project failed primarily due to a complete lack of oversight by the board.	1. The committee provides daily oversight. 2. Strict oversight is necessary, yet it should not stifle the company's creative freedom. 3. Since there was no independent oversight, the department's budget was spent without any proper documentation. 4. Because the government lacked proper oversight of the project, costs spiraled out of control, and the taxpayers were eventually forced to cover the deficit.